

Together, we can end violence against women.

You are invited to join Family Transition Place and Caledon Public Library for a candlelight vigil, as we mark the National Day of Remembrance and Action on Violence Against Women. This is a solemn ritual in memory of a tragic day; it is also an opportunity to consider ways in which we can individually take action to end woman abuse. Please join us.

In Bolton: December 6 at Caledon Public Library, 150 Queen St. S. • 11 am- 12 pm
In Orangeville: December 4 at FTP, 20 Bredin Parkway • 11:30 am - 1 pm
