

SEXUAL VIOLENCE CLINICAL COUNSELLOR

Full-Time Position—35-hours a week

Family Transition Place (FTP) is looking for a Clinical Counsellor with the skills and knowledge to provide trauma counselling to people who have experienced sexual violence. We are committed to supporting and reaching out to communities (like the Neurodiverse, LGBTQTS2+, Indigenous, BIPOC) that we know are vulnerable to sexual violence so it would be an asset to have experience providing support to these communities. FTP provides counselling services at offices in Orangeville, Bolton and Shelburne. The successful candidate may be required to work in any of these locations.

Responsibilities will include:

- Individual trauma counselling (in person and virtual) for survivors of sexual violence/abuse (including past childhood or recent assault), as well as providing support to their family and/or friend
- Planning, developing and co-facilitating/debriefing open or closed groups or workshops for women who have experienced sexual violence/abuse
- Advocacy for clients through outreach and collaboration with other community response systems including family court, criminal justice and health
- Group facilitation and educational / informational presentations and some committee work

Qualifications:

- Masters level counselling-focused degree or equivalent
- Registration with a counselling / social work college
- More than 2 years' experience providing clinical counselling, case management, therapy and group work
- Understanding of the links between violence, trauma, addictions and mental health issues
- Ability to incorporate into counselling an anti-oppression framework and short-term therapy models
- Familiarity with the GAIN Short Screener, Ontario Common Assessment of Needs (OCAN) and the Integrated Assessment Record (IAR) is an asset
- Strong written and oral communication skills
- Skills in the use of a computer and a client information data base for statistical recording, correspondence and report writing
- Proof of a valid Ontario Drivers Licence and automobile insurance
- Second language would be an asset

Hours of Work:

- 35-hours per week. Some evening and weekend work may be required.

The successful candidate will join a compassionate, caring and forward-thinking team of professionals. We provide an attractive benefits package that includes vacation, sick and personal time. As well, we provide flexible work arrangements. As we come out of the pandemic restrictions, our commitment to these practices will only be strengthened.

Our steadfast feminist and family-first approach guides the work we do. We are committed to ensuring that FTP continues to boast strong staff retention and satisfaction through consistent collaboration, communication, skills and culture development opportunities throughout our organization.
