2026 Celebrating Women Magazine

This incredible full-colour magazine celebrates women, features beautiful graphics and thought-provoking content. Your advertising investment provides your business with valuable exposure and 100% of ad sales will support your local women's shelter—Family Transition Place. Celebrating Women will be available in print and released at our 2026 International Women's Day Celebration Breakfast Event, with additional copies circulated throughout participating businesses in Dufferin and Caledon. Additionally, the magazine will be published digitally and sent to our donor database, and shared on our website and social media sites.
